

Where leaders gain perspective!

LEADING CHANGE

Develop understanding about how individuals respond to change and how to effectively communicate about change in your organization.

The Change Style Indicator is a leadership assessment designed to measure an individual's preferred style in approaching and addressing change.

We provide leaders of all levels with insights on personal preferences for leading through change and awareness about how those around them might perceive and respond to their preferred style.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Helps participants consider different perspectives and preferences for change
- Helps participants identify and navigate the stages of change
- Helps participants consider all perspectives when resolving issues to increase collaboration
- Engages a team's creativity and innovation by understanding style preferences
- Improves team effectiveness by understanding the advantages of each style
